The matter was referred back to the school board to be considered by them.

Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

The first presentation in this city of the dramatization of this remarkable book was witnessed by a good sized audience last evening. The work in the piece is all in the double role of Jekyll and Hyde and the depiction of these two opposites was well performed by W. H. Hartigan, the leader of the company. Mr. Hartigan displayed his capabilities in the second act where he was overcome with remorse because of his

The lightning metamorphosis on several occasions were executed with skill and the stage transformations from the pleasant and affable Dr. Jekyll to the hideous and loathsome Mr. Hyde, and vice versa, brought out rounds of applause which were well derserved.-Beacon, Ashtabula, O. At the Opera House, Monday evening, April 26th.

Dancing To Beautiful Music.

The after Lenten dancing party given by August Weserer and eight other musicians composing Wesener's orchestra, at the Armory Tuesday evening, was a very pleasant occasion, the music being the best ever rendered in the city, the time perfect, the encores numerous and dances arranged to suit the company. About 70 couples attended and but few left before the music closed at 3:15 Wednesday morning. A short grand march was led by Hugo and Mrs. Wesener at 9:00 o'clock and the galety continued with but a fifteen minute intermission. The musie was so correct in time that but few sat through the dances and rejuctantly the merry makers took time to partake of a light lunch served in the west cloak room.

Many visitors from out of town were presunong them being Robert Allison and Miss Edith Steel, of St. Johns, James Mc-Henry and Mrs. Jay Pearsoll, of Lansing, Miss Nina Eveleth, Miss Edna Marshall, Will Gallagher, of Corunna, Miss May Briggs, of Cleveland, Warren Stuart, of Fiedu, Goy Bronson, of Lausing, T. #### BAD BREATH

Pestilence or Famine.

And yet thousands of women are so afflicted. In spite of all they can do this continues to grow worse, or at least grow no better. Tooth-brusbes and breath perfume seem of no avail. The reason of their fail- her endeavor being to live up to the golden ure is, in the majority of cases at least, they do not know the cause of their trouble. Perhaps the most frequent cause of unpleasant breath is catarrh. The inflammation of the mucous membrane of mouth and throat discolors the teeth, coats the tongue, causes tack of inflammation and her recovery is the lips to become harsh and sore, and imparts a more or less disagreeable odor to the breath. Such a condition must be an extreme annoyance to the women whose instincts are naturally dainty; and she would

To all such women, the word that Pe-runa will absolutely cure catarrh will therefore be good news. Pe ru na, by removing the catarrh, sweetens the breath and causes healthy secretions to take the place of the irritating ones which have been the cause of so much discomfort. 5 The teeth are easily cleaned and the effects of a brisk brushing remain. The tongue resumes its natural color and the unhealthy coating disappears. Catarrh of the stomach also is often the cause of foul breath. Pe-ru-na cures catarrh wherever located.

A book of 64 instructively illustrated pages on catarrh, of which Dr. Hartman is the author, will be sent free to any address for a short time by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio,

The funeral services of Mrs. Selina L. Hanford were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Wagar, 618 Mulberry St., Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. B. Matteson officiating.

Selina L. Nichols was born Nov. 2, 1819, in Penfield, Monroe Co., N. Y., and died April 18, 1897. She was married to Jesse C. Hanford in May, 1843, who died in 1881. In 1851 she came to Michigan to reside, first settling at Ann Arbor, removing to Shiawassee county in 1854, where she resided until called to the better world. Mrs. Hanford was converted and united with the M. E. church in 1843, and has since been a member. She was always a good neighbor, rule. Her memory will be a blessing to her children. Death was not an unwelcome visitor as she had been a sufferer for years, always bearing her trial with Christian fortitude.

To mourn her loss there are left a brother, son and daughter, seven grand children, one great grand child and five step children.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness, death and burial of our mother. CHILDREN AND FAMILIES.
